

Mr Joseph Kinyanjui lectures in the Department of Economics, Kenyatta University. He is a holder of BA (Economics) from the University of Nairobi and MA (Economics) from the University of Alberta in Canada. Mr. Kinyanjui has also been a lecturer at Egerton University and worked for the Ministry of Planning and National Development. His research interests revolve around monetary economics, banking and finance. Mr. Kinyanjui is currently pursuing Ph.D in Economics.

CURRICULUM VITAE

NAME: JOSEPH MWAURA KINYANJUI

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

Registered PhD Student: School of Economics (Starting September 2008)

M.A. (Economics) 1990: University of Albarta, Canada

Courses Covered: Macro & Micro Economics, Econometrics, Money and Banking, International Trade, Urban Economics, Public Finance, Agricultural Economics and Mathematics for Economists.

M.A. Research Paper: “The Monetary Approach to the Balance of Payments”: A Case Study of Kenya

UNDERGRADUATE

B.A. (Hons) 1986: University of Nairobi

Courses Covered: Micro & Macro Economics, Statistics, Mathematics for Economists, Agricultural Economics, Money and Banking Development Economics and Development Planning

SECONDARY EDUCATION

A – Level (1981): Starehe Boys’ Centre
3 Principals and 1 Subsidiary
Mathematics, Geography and Economics

O – Level (1979): Starehe Boys’ Centre

PRIMARY EDUCATION

34 Points: Mitahato Primary School

WORK EXPERIENCE

Jan 1998 – To Date: Assistant Lecturer, Economics Department
Kenyatta University

June 1991 – Dec 1997: Lecturer, Economics Department
Egerton University

Jan 1987 – June 1991: Economist/Planning Officer
Ministry of Planning and National Development

OTHER RESPONSIBILITIES

June – August 1989: Research Assistant
Long Range Planning Office
Carleton University, Ottawa, Canada

1990 – 2005: Examiner Economics
(KASNEB)

2004 – 2005: Departmental Deputy Examination Officer,
Economics, Kenyatta University

2003: Reviewed a Textbook “Modern Economics an Economist Textbook by Robert Mudiba

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Jan 2008:	Appointed as a Member in the Kenyatta University's Vice Chancellor's Steering Committee on Post-General Election Violence Reconciliation and Counselling
2006 – To Date:	Chairman, Universities Academic Staff Union (UASU), Kenyatta University Chapter
2007 – 2008:	Secretary, Catholic Men Association (CMA), St. Francis of Assisi, Ruiru
2004 – 2005:	Secretary, Kenya Football Federation (KFF), Ruiru Division
2006 – 2008:	Board Member, Githunguri High School, Ruiru
2005 – 2008:	Group Secretary, Sharma Water Project Ruiru

REFEREES

1. Dr. Tom Kimani
Dean, School of Economics
Kenyatta University
2. Professor Martin Etyang
Professor of Economics
School of Economics
Kenyatta University
3. Rev. Martin Njiraini
Father-in-Charge
St. Francis of Assisi, Catholic Church